

Charlestown Senior Citizens Commission Meeting
Monday March 28, 2016
Town Hall Annex Conference Room
4540 South County Trail, Charlestown, RI 02813

Call to order: 1:50 pm by Joan Wicklund, chairman.

Roll Call: Grayce Anderson, Betty McClung, Ann King, Gordon Mahan, Jim O'Brien, Jack Donaghue and Joan Wicklund.

Denise L. Rhodes, our liaison from the council joined us.

Minutes of the February 22 meeting were read and approved.

Correspondence: None

Old Business: Jack Donaghue spoke about the Memorial Day Parade having many more bands this year. It is the Sunday before Memorial Day

Jim O'Brien went to Rathskeller Restaurant to obtain baffles information. He talked to the management and the information is forthcoming.

Meanwhile, Joan Wicklund looked up and presented the information we had from Jay Proimiano in 2015. It was decided at that time to use the monies available for the senior center on handicapped accessible doors. Joan is looking into possible funding.

We continued to discuss what is happening with "affordable housing". A pamphlet will be coming out with an explanation for the public.

The search for the oldest person in Charleston continues..

New Business: Jim O'Brien spoke about the Income Tax people working at the Center and the great benefit it is for our seniors.

Denise Rhodes updated the problems that people who live on the Westerly line continue to have with the sand gravel mining. The mine has settled with the Westerly people but this has not helped Charleston people.

Joan Wicklund discussed the possibility of doing a fundraiser.

Public Comment: None

Adjournment: 3:55 pm

Respectfully submitted,
Ann S King
