Jane During of Riverside Farm in Charlestown, has expressed interest in being the second alternate for the Committee. The town council chairman Virginia Lee called me to ask about this but I didn't get the message.

Still waiting for the regulations from the Planning board about commercial solar installations on farms and properties in Charlestown. It is supposed to go to the Town Council.

5. NEW BUSINESS

Noel Rowe wrote a letter to the town council after speaking with Mike Merner, Jayne Senecal and later talked to John Barrett. Noel and Mike attend the November meeting of the Council, which discussed new rules for events held on farms. See Attached letter. The Council decided to study the issue until the next session in December which I was also unable to attend so we need an update on what was decided in December or January.
